5 - 9 pm

Fairfax County Police Department welcomes the participation of any neighborhood or community group in National Night Out, and encourages you to utilize this event as a way to bring people together and to have fun! National Night Out events are a way to strengthen the ties between residents and the police department. Please join the officers of the Sully District Station, McGruff the crime dog and Target– the national sponsor of NNO for the 2010 NNO celebration.
